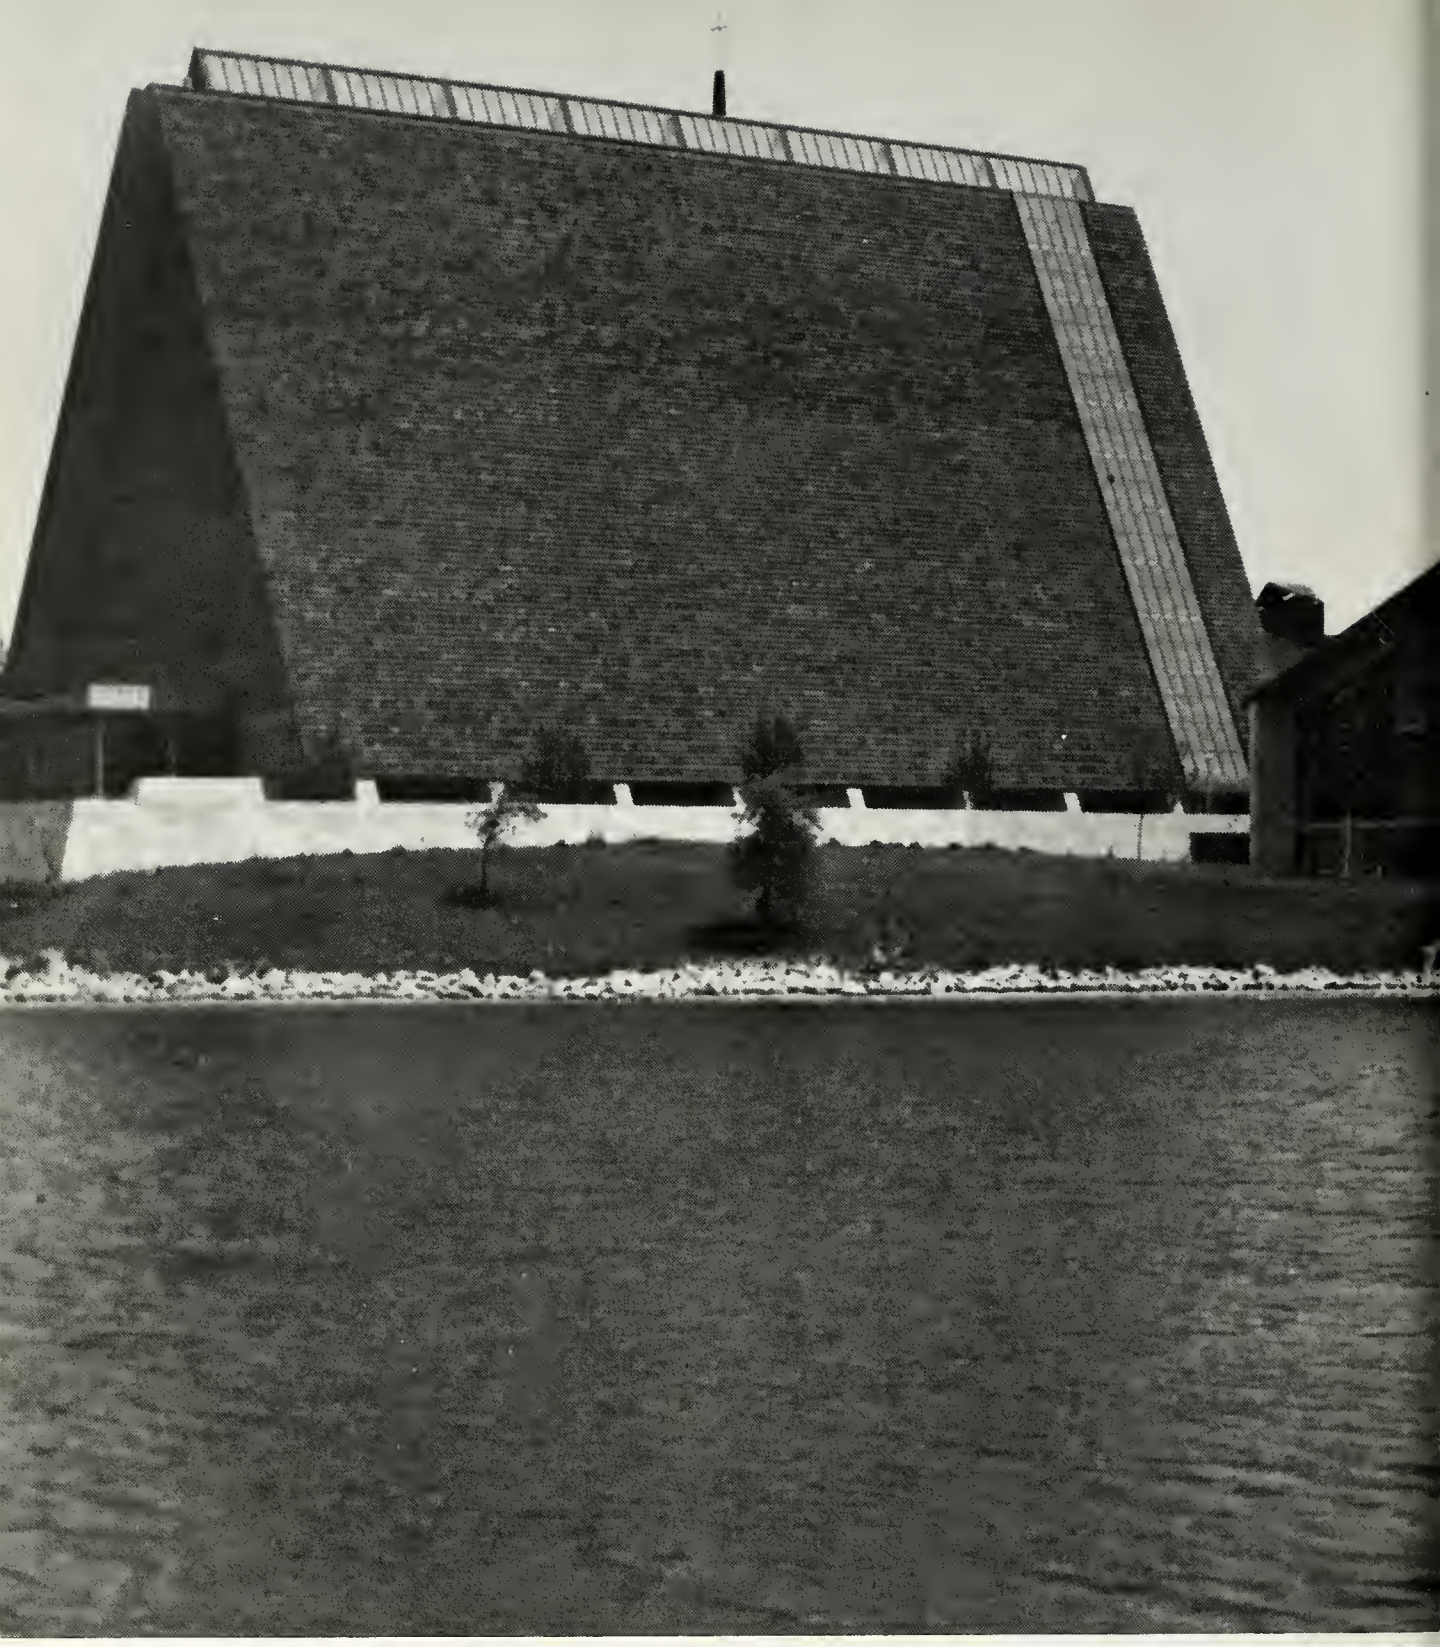
Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience, forbearing one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as you teach and admonish one another in all wisdom, and as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Colossians 3:12-17



Concordia Senior College

Presents

THE SPIRE

Allen County Public Library
900 Webster Street
PO Box 2270
Fort Wayne, IN 46801-2270

I am happy to find that the basic educational philosophy of the college: "What a man is learning is of doubtful value apart from what a man is becoming", has found acceptance to such a degree among seniors that it forms a context for thought that is taken for granted in the theme of the 1962 ANNUAL.

The emphasis which this ANNUAL places upon the centrality of our common membership in the Body of Christ is both relevant and right, for no community of faith, including ours at Concordia Senior College, can be at its best until the reality by which it lives is put into such natural expression and used so meaningfully in daily life that the faith itself becomes its own best recommendation.

Looking ahead, I am convinced that the need for this kind of college and this kind of graduate is greater than ever, for if it is to meet its destiny, our Church must continue to produce men with high respect for and commitment to intellectual integrity and capacity; men of deep faith; men with complete dedication to the vigorous use of their God-given capacities in modesty and humility, in fear and trembling, yet with an exultant sense of privilege and a tone of passionate conviction, to proclaim, in the name of God Himself, the essential Christian truths that God has committed to man.
